

WW1 Book Launch!!

A book to commemorate the centenary of the Battle of the Somme, World War 1 and all those who served from the villages of Warkworth and Acklington was launched at the Battle of the Somme Exhibition, 2 July 2016 in Warkworth. The book: 'Portraits of War' 'The men and women of Warkworth and Acklington district who served in World War I' is a well-researched book consisting of 134 pages of interesting facts on the local men and two women who served their country during the Great War and includes research into their service records, immediate family and community support during the Great War.

Author - June Watson, Secretary of Warkworth and Amble District Royal British Legion and Poppy Appeal organiser for the district.

Copies of the book can be obtained by contacting the author, telephone 07785 753100. A £10 donation for the local Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal is suggested for each copy, plus postage and packaging of £2.99.

An ideal Christmas or birthday gift!!
