Golden Years (2016) John Miller. 1hr 36 Min. English. Comedy/Crime. Starring Bernard Hill, Ina Stubbs, Virginia McKenna, Alun Armstrong and Simon Callow.

Fate, the pensions crisis and the injustices of old age result in a group of law-abiding pensioners stumbling into a life of crime. A light-hearted and entertaining comedy which makes robbing banks look easy and the authorities numbingly incompetent. Many of the favourite faces of British Film and TV feature in this banks, bowls and bingo romp. Not quite a Carry On remake but close.

Dunkirk (2017) Christopher Nolan. PG-13. 1Hr 46Min. Action/Drama/History. Starring Fionn Whitehead, Barry Keoghan, Mark Rylance, Kenneth Branagh and Harry Styles.

Utterly immersive account of how 300,000 Allied soldiers from the British Empire, Belgium and France surrounded in Dunkirk by the German Army were rescued by the Royal Navy and an armada of small civilian vessels. This iconic episode in our nation's history has been addressed many times before on the screen, not least in Mrs Miniver (1942) and Dunkirk (1958) starring John Mills and Richard Attenborough but this film will doubtless become the definitive cinematic depiction.

7 April 2018

Eye in the Sky (2015) Gavin Hood. R. 1Hr 42Min. English. Drama/Thriller/War. Starring Helen Mirren, Alan Rickman and Aaron Paul.

Col. Katherine Powell is a military officer in command of a operation against terrorists in Kenya. She sees her mission escalate when an innocent girl enters the target zone. An international dispute is triggered over the ethics of drone strikes in modern warfare. A provocatively tense film with an A-level cast.

2 June 2018

Hidden Figures (2016). Theodore Melfi. PG. 2Hr 7Min. American. Biography/Drama/History. Starring Taraji Hanson, Octavia Spenser and Janelle Monae

The story of a team of three female African/American mathematicians who played a vital role in NASA during the early years of the US space programme. The film follows them working furiously on the calculations for the launch and re-entry of John Glenn's 1962 mission as the first American to orbit the Earth. By this time, the Russians had launched the first satellite and put the first person into an Earth orbit. The US was desperate to claw back this advantage and win the space race and by extension the Cold War.
